

as the cost of the institution and amount of debt upon graduation.

University of New Jersey graduates have fared well. Two Supreme Court Justices – Antonin Scalia and newly confirmed Elena Kagan – both earned their undergraduate degrees at UNJ. Donald Trump, Steve Jobs and Howie Mandel also attended the University.

Meryl Streep and Bruce Springsteen received an honorary degree from UNJ at last May's commencement. Stephen Hawking gave the commencement speech.

The owner/publisher of Forbes Magazine, Steve Forbes, who hails from Morristown, NJ had attended UNJ in the 60s but never graduated. Last December he finally got his degree in Finance. "I never finished, I just went right to work for my Dad. But this UNJ degree means more to me than anything I've done in my life," said Forbes.
